

Mother's Day Ideas

Card (I've packed colored paper for you to pick up with books on Tuesday):

I love this one! I've done it with my class in the past. It's easy and so sweet! Take a picture of your child holding their hands above their heads. Print it out (at home or Shoppers/Walmart). Cut around the picture so you only have the child. Fold a piece of colored paper in half like a card. Glue the picture of the child in the center (making sure there is room for a heart above it). Cut out a heart and have your child print the words "I Love You Mom!" – glue it on. If you have red paper use it but if not just have them color the heart red. Then you can decorate it however you like. If you have colored paper you can cut and glue on a sun, flowers, etc. If you don't have a lot of colored paper just draw and color.

On the inside have your child write a message to mom. It can be as simple as "Happy Mother's Day" or they can write a message saying why they love her. How about a poem?

Mommy

it's your special day.

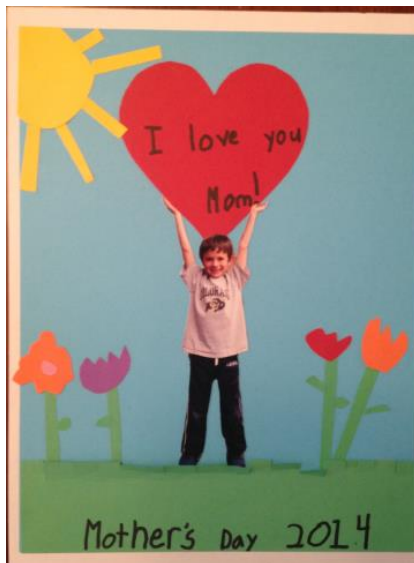

You're the best

In every way.

Thank you

For the things you do.

You love me and I love you.

Another card idea:

Here is a link for tons of sweet cards/art ideas for mom. If you click on the one you like it will take you to a page explaining how to make it:

Writing

This week's writing is all about mom! Choose one of the following writing activities to give to mom on her special day!

- Write a story called "Mom's Perfect Day" – It can start with the words: On Mom's special day, she would...then keep writing what would happen on her perfect day. Remember each time you give an idea tell a few details about it. For instance: She would sleep in late. Nobody would wake her up. We would all be very quiet until she got up all on her own!
- Write an acrostic poem. We have done a few of these before. Spell a word down the page (use colorful letters). Now use each of those letters to describe your mother. I'll show you an example using the word CAT. Remember you are going to do the same using the word MOTHER.

Cuddly
Acts really silly
Teases the dog
Softly purring

- Write about why you love mom. Use the paper below. Remember to add some details. Example: If you say you love how she helps you then tell 2-3 things she does to help.

Mom

I Love You Because

Mom's Perfect Day
